Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurSynopsis:Abused, sold by his jealous brothers into slavery, and imprisoned for a crime he didnt commit, life as a refugee was far from easy for Joseph, the dreamer. How was he to cope with lifes challenges and experiences as a friendless, dejected slave? Follow his Old Testament adventures and take a fresh look at the old familiar story of one of Judaisms greatest patriarchs.About the Author:First-time author

John Berry is a retired teacher and a lay minister in the Anglican Church. He lives near Stratford-upon-Avon, is married, has three grown-up children and two small grandchildren. He started writing ten years ago and has had three articles published in the Christian magazine Plain Truth. I was always captivated by Old

Testament characters. I was particularly inspired by Joseph, as so much of his life can be applied to life today.Publishers website:<http://sbprabooks.com/JohnBerry> Prsentation de l'diteurSynopsis:Abused, sold by
