Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurPolice officer Helen Weeks walks into her local newsagent's on her way to work. It's the last place she expects to be met with violence, but she is about to come face to face with a gunman.The hostage-taker is desperate to know what happened to his beloved son, who died a year before in youth custody. By holding Helen at gunpoint, he will force a re-investigation into his son's death. And one man knows the case better than any other - DI Tom Thorne.As the body count rises,Thorne must race against time to bring a killer to justice and save a young mother's life.Revue de presse'This is a clever, compelling novel that tackles some complex issues about justice and race in Britain, while also producing the necessary thrills and surprises. The characterisations are spot on and Billingham leavens his dark tale with some nice dollops of dry humour and witty comments' --Canberra Times
